

The Central Florida Gliders Track Club, Inc. is a community-based, 501(c)(3), nonprofit youth running organization. The club's track/cross country team competes in national competitions, including AAU Jr. Olympic Championships and USATF National Championships.

Extensive fund-raising assists these athletes in traveling to these meets representing our Central Florida communities. Your donation is tax deductible and is greatly appreciated. These young athletes have been working hard to represent our community and your donation will help them achieve their goal of traveling to the national championships. Thank you for supporting youth running here in Central Florida!
